1. Introduction

- 1.1 Westminster Tutors Independent Sixth Form College is part of David Game College Group Ltd. David Game College Group Ltd. is responsible for how your college looks after your personal information. When we say “we” in this notice, this means your college, Westminster Tutors and David Game College Group Ltd. We are required by law to look after the information we hold about you; this notice tells you how we do this.
- 1.2 Personal information is any information which is about you, from which you can be identified.
- 1.3 Please make sure you read this privacy notice carefully. This notice is a short form version of the full notice we have provided to your parents. If you would like more information, please speak to your teacher, you can also look at the privacy notice for your parents. This is available on our website.

2. What Personal Information Might The College Hold About You

- 2.1 The personal information we may hold on you includes:
 - Your full name, date of birth, grade and photograph;
 - Your home address, home telephone number and mobile number;
 - Your college email address and personal email address;
 - Your academic records and test results;
 - Your medical records (including special education needs and/or accidents); and
 - Your race, religion or ethnicity.
 - Biometric door access data

3. Information We Receive From, And Share With, Other People or Companies

- 3.1 We will share your information with your parents. If you are not British, we may have to provide information about you to UK Visas and Immigration.
- 3.2 We may work with other institutions such as your previous or new college, college nurses or doctors, college photographers, local authorities, social services, police (where there are concerns with your safety), education authorities, SEN co-ordinators, the college’s business partners and professional advisors. We might receive or share information about you from them or give information to them. We will only do so as set out in this notice. We may also use biometric door access data and CCTV footage to ensure the college is safe and monitor who is visiting the College.

4. Contact Us if You Have Further Questions

- 4.1 If you have any questions about this notice then please speak to your teacher. We have a Data Protection Co-ordinator, Mr Sean Doherty, who can explain in more detail how your information is looked after. Our Data Protection Officer has overall responsibility for your information: sean@westminstertutors.co.uk.

5. How The College Uses Your Information

- 5.1 We will use the information you and your parents give us as is necessary to provide you with the information and services that your parents request from us (to look after you, teach you and to deal with any queries they may have). We are also required by law to take a register, keep a personal file about you, keep a record of your behaviour and provide a written report on your progress.
- 5.2 We also use your information to promote the objects and interest of our colleges, ensuring the most efficient management of the college and ensuring that the college's legal obligations are adhered to; and use your photograph as part of a manual ID system. These are known as "legitimate interests".
- 5.3 Help from third parties. We rely on software applications and other technology provided by other people to handle your information. These include virtual learning environments (including the setting of tasks and homework), revision tools, parents evening booking systems, text and email messaging communications, assessments of your progress and co-ordination of college trips. The companies we use to deliver these applications are carefully chosen by us to ensure that your information is kept secure.

6. Sensitive Personal Data

- 6.1 When we hold details about your health and wellbeing, this information is called "sensitive personal data" which means we treat this information even more carefully. We will need to hold sensitive personal data about you (a) for carrying out our obligations in the field of social security or social protection law, (b) for identifying medical problems or provision of health care or (c) to protect your vital interests. To achieve this, we may also use software applications and other technology.

7. Where We Need Your Consent

- 7.1 We will seek your and your parent's permission if we decide to post your photographs on any of our marketing materials (including our prospectus or website); you may withdraw your permission should you wish.
- 7.2 You do not have to give us details about your race, religion or ethnicity if you do not want to. If you do, we will use this to help run the college (e.g. if your religion means that you have certain dietary requirements) and to monitor equal opportunities. You can ask us to delete this information at any time.

8. Transfer of Personal Information Outside The Country

8.1 Sometimes, your information will need to be transferred to and stored outside the UK or EEA. We try to limit this, but it may be necessary where e.g. one of our suppliers stores your information outside Europe. We take all steps reasonably and legally necessary to ensure your information is safe.

9. Your Rights

- Right to request access to your personal information (a "subject access request" or "SAR").
- Right to request correction of the personal information we hold about you.
- Right to request deletion of your personal information.
- Right to object to the processing of your personal information.
- Right to request the restriction of processing of your personal information.
- Right to request the transfer of your personal information to another organisation.
- Right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office

10. How Long We Keep Your Personal Information

10.1 We will not keep any personal information about you for any longer than is necessary. Generally, we keep your student record file for seven years after your last enrolment (even if you have changed colleges), after which it is destroyed. We follow a personal data retention policy, which determines how long we keep specific types of personal information. For further information, please speak to your teacher.

11. Changes To This Privacy Notice

11.1 We may change this notice, we will let you know if we do.

11.2 Please make sure you read this privacy notice carefully. This notice is a short form version of the full notice we have provided to your parents. If you would like more information, please speak to your teacher. You can also look at the privacy notice for your parents, which is available on our website.
